2016 marked the triumphant return of Rose Cora Perry (former frontwoman of major label signed touring act Anti-Hero) with the critically-acclaimed release of her sophomore solo album, "Onto the Floor". A "one-of-a-kind talent", Perry's vocals have been said to be the "perfect blend of Alanis Morissette and Norah Jones" (Kaotic Notes), while her songwriting is full of "raw visceral power, killer hooks and punch-in-the-gut riffs" (Spill Magazine).

In conjunction with the album's release, Perry formed high energy powerhouse duo, The Truth Untold, featuring the exceptional talent of Tyler Randall (ex-Blind Mag/Swerve) on Drums; Perry handles Vocals, Guitar & Songwriting. Multi-instrumentalist/soundwoman extraordinaire Amber Gorham joins them on their 2018 tour as their Bassist. Within 6 months of coming together, The Truth Untold conquered audiences of 25,000+ , performing at notable festivals and winning over crowds of 20-somethings & babyboomers alike.

The Truth Untold's captivating live performances, coupled with their award-winning film noir Music Video trilogy series for "Onto the Floor"'s singles have taken Canada (and soon the world) by storm.
